ARTIST'S WIFE EXHIBITS HER OWN PICTURES

Everybody in Boston, and in fact everybody in New England, has seen or heard about the Willow girl. She has appeared on calendars and in advertisements within number. Her creator was Philip Bolson, the artist. The original was Miss Emily Gilbert, former artist's model, and now wife of Artist Bolson.

Mrs. Bolson has just announced her intention of doing art work herself. She has been studying abroad since April, and returned on the American liner St. Paul, re-commencing her studies under the instruction of her husband, at their summer home at Douglas Manor, N. Y.

Mr. Paul Bolson (Miss Gilbert's ex-husband) has just returned from Paris, where he acted as chief assistant to the artist's exhibition in New York. Mrs. Bolson is keeping her plans secret, as that was one of the artist's instructions.

girl, whom I made a queen of English last year, I studied hard all the time. It was my intention to make a trip to Switzerland, but my cousin was going to Switzerland, and I would join her. I stayed there two days and had a small vacation, and I would go to the city. I went on to Paris and I visited all the places that my husband used to go to, and that I came home.

Mrs. Barlett said she was not the least bit sorry that she gave up her stage ambitions and declared that she was sure she would make a success as an artist under

DID THE RED
OR WHITE SOX
WIN THAT DEAL?

WHO DID WIN OUT ON THAT LORD DEAL?

Which Sox got the best of that baseball deal—Red or White?

That's the question of the hour that baseball fans are trying their hardest to solve. Everybody's interested, but the Sox and the White Sox are the only ones who are not.

NEW YORK, Aug. 16.—Following the announcement that John Flanagan, the Irish-American athlete, Club's hammer-thrower, had resigned from the New York Police Department and would move to Toronto, came the rumor to-day that Martin Sheridan would soon retire from the Police Department.

It is said that Sheridan has had a very good business offer from a Western concern and that he is seriously considering accepting it. In Flanagan and Sheridan the Irish-Americans will lose two of their greatest point winners, and sport followers will regret losing these two athletes.
